

American Legion Auxiliary
Girl Scout Achievement Award
2009-2010

AWARD: $1,000 ALA National Level Scholarship

Applicant Requirements:

- Must have earned the Girl Scout Gold award and be a High School Junior or Senior at the time of application.
- Must be actively involved in a religious institution and must have received the appropriate religious emblem at the Cadette or Senior Scout level.
- Must have demonstrated practical citizenship in the religious institution, school, Girl Scouting, and community.
- Must submit at least one letter of recommendation with application from an individual representing one of the following: your church, school, community, or scout troop.
- Submit, by April 1, 2010, a 500-word essay describing your Gold Award project. Explain why you chose the project you did and how it made an impact on you and your community.

Selection Process:

This application and your essay must be presented to your local American Legion Auxiliary Unit President ON OR BEFORE April 1, 2010.

A screening committee composed of Girl Scout leaders and educators will judge applications and essays. The successful applicant will be notified in late June of 2010.

Conditions of the Scholarship:

The scholarship recipient will be eligible to receive her scholarship after graduation from high school and must utilize the award within one year of graduation or of award, if she has already graduated.

The scholarship must be used to attend a school which is state accredited and above the high school level, and within the United States, except in the case where the recipient may be from a territory of the United States, in which case she may select a school in that territory.

The American Legion Auxiliary National Headquarters will make disbursement directly to the student in two $500 payments – one for fall semester to be made in August; the second for spring semester to be made in January. Disbursement will be made when student provides verification of registration and full-time status for the term in which the funds will be used.
