What is this program and why do we have it? The Homeless Women Veterans Program provides assistance in the form of grants to homeless or at-risk of becoming homeless women veterans and their families. Keep Auxiliary Units and the American Legion/family members informed of the needs of all homeless or at-risk of being homeless veterans and their families.

What can you do?

- Assist in activities that help homeless or at-risk women veterans.

Ideas:

Members and Units

- Give a helping hand to the Legion's homeless veteran coordinator in your department and offer to assist that coordinator in responding to requests for assistance from homeless or at-risk women veterans or homeless veteran service providers.
- Crochet hats, scarves or mittens to be distributed to homeless or at-risk women veterans.
- Use information provided by your department chairman to contact the homeless veteran coordinator at the VA health care system nearest you to explore what the unit or you can do to help homeless women veterans in your community.
- Participate in the VA Project CHALENG organized by the VA health care system nearest to you. (Project CHALENG for Veterans enhances the care for homeless veterans provided by your local VA and its surrounding community service agencies.)
- Contact your local post chairman and offer your assistance if requests for help come through the Legion's Family Support Network (FSN).
- Raise funds for local American Legion posts/units to help women veterans and their families through the Family Support Network for veterans at risk of losing their housing or homeless veterans transitioning to permanent housing.
- Make payments of overdue rent, utility payments or deposits and security deposits.
- Host a stand down for Women Veterans
- Contact homeless veteran emergency shelters, transitional housing projects and permanent housing projects in your community and identify the organization's volunteer and in-kind contribution needs, including:
  - Meal preparation and serving
  - Clothes collection and distribution
  - Assembly and delivery of hygiene kits, buddy baskets and purchasing or securing household items or furniture
- Reach out to specific homeless women veterans, such as residents of projects mentioned above to provide her practical, social and moral support.
- Compile "Blessing Bags" to be given to local police department or other organizations that deal with the homeless women veterans population.

- Create a “Tree of Warmth” by collecting scarves, mittens, hats and attaching them to a tree in a location the homeless frequent. Include a sign that says “Please Take if Needed,” “Free if Needed” or something similar.
- Develop a fund raising plan. These funds can be used for emergency housing, supporting local shelters, supplying veterans with basic needs. Contact local businesses, churches and civic groups for item and monetary donations. Ask to receive a portion of the proceeds raised at a community event. Involve media to ensure donors are recognized for their support of America’s veterans.
- Support the Department Homeless Women Veterans Grant Fund

Department

- Educate Unit members about homeless women veterans.
- Identify methods of helping homeless women veterans in local communities by identifying VA homeless coordinators, state VA coordinators or attending Homeless Roundtables.
- Identify The American Legion’s homeless veterans’ coordinator in your department.
- Contact the homeless veteran coordinator at the VA health care system nearest you to explore what the unit or you can do to help homeless women veterans in your community.
- Develop a Grant Application with guidelines.
- Encourage Units to financially support the Homeless Women Veterans Grant Fund
- Inform all Veteran Benefit Representatives of the Homeless Women Veterans Grant Fund and Guidelines
- Continue the “Making Connections Women to Women” reference manual.
- Contact the homeless women veteran at the VA Health Care Systems to explore what the Unit or individual member can do to help homeless women veterans. Coordinate and encourage participation in the following programs: VA Project CHALENG (Community Homelessness Assessment, Local Education and Networking Groups) for Veterans, which enhances the care for homeless veterans, provided by the local VA and its surrounding community service agencies www.va.gov/homeless/chaleng.asp.
- Promote Units to host Stand Downs for Women Veterans.
- Process grant requests and submit to committee for approval/denial
