Tracy Kinnick, National Membership Chair.

This time of year, membership activity slows down - let's not do that. In a year where we are celebrating America's 250th Birthday, let's kick it in gear and work each week to be stronger and better as an organization focusing on our goals and mission.

Is recruiting challenging? Absolutely. To some it comes naturally, for others it is a challenge to step out of your comfort zone.

Here are a few tips to help you along the way:

• Know your why

o Tell your story, pick an event or situation that you are passionate about

• Share Member Benefits

o Member Benefits

o Recognize your members

• Create a warm friendly environment

o Are you creating a culture that is welcoming and inclusive — not cliquish?

o Have you tried a fun and exciting team building event?

• Mentor members into different roles

o Offer juniors shadowing opportunities to allow for them to be engaged and feel involved

o Pair a member with a new member for mentoring to help them understand the programs and process of your unit.

• Provide clear communication

o How do you share information to your grassroots members, are they receiving the information.

o What other methods of communication can you utilize for your members who may not have computer access?

• Encourage Referrals and Early Birds

o Many units offer discounts for early bird renewal

o Offer to only collect the portion of dues for the department and national to new members

o New member recognition dinner

o There are many ways to encourage members to feel welcomed and included, think out of the box, please share your ideas with us!

We can be successful in membership, by working together for one common goal, our mission!

Showcase our mission, share your passion. Membership is everyone's responsibility.

Can you recruit one this week? If you recruit one post it, share it, let us all meet your new member! Don't forget your family members who are eligible, nieces, sisters, spouses, neighbors, church family, etc. Think of your circle, the worse they will say is NO, I don't know about you, but it will not be the first time someone has told me NO for something, and knowing me probably not the last 😊

“Coming together is a beginning, staying together is progress, and working together is success”
