HOW TO RECORD YOUR UNIT'S HISTORY

From Department Historian Sue Hembrook

Contact Information for Questions:
genesuehem@wi.rr.com or 262-843-4791

Objective:

Write a unit history.

Step-by-Step Instructions:

It's important for every unit to have a yearly history written. Here are some tips on what to include:

- Write the history in a third-person narrative. Your job is that of an intermediary – someone who witnessed the events and then describes them for the reader. Do not include your thoughts or comments on the events – only the occasion, the people involved, and what occurred.
- Be sure to start recording events as soon as the unit reporting year begins.
- Department president visits to units are important, so be sure to also include examples of what she did to support veterans, military, their families and communities.
- Include all member activities as part of the unit history, not just activities of the president.
- Record special events that occur during the year. Examples:
 - Your unit gets a declaration for poppy month.
 - Your unit conducts a big fundraiser for the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival or any other veteran's program.
 - Record any current events that affect American Legion Auxiliary members and include information about the Auxiliary's response to an event. For example, if there is a weather disaster, write about how your members went above and beyond to help in the community, etc.
- Any time your unit gets media coverage (i.e., a mention on the radio or press release in the paper); include the details in your history.
- Pick out impressive statistics from unit committees. Examples:
 - Your Auxiliary Emergency Fund funds greatly increase.
 - You send more girls to ALA Badger Girls State.

Once complete, present the unit president the history for the year, and give a copy to the unit for its files. Also, enter the unit history book into competition at the District Spring Conference.

Historian Awards

Senior Books: A Department of Wisconsin Certificate of Participation will be presented to all district, county and unit historians' history books judged at the district level and submitted for Department consideration for a Certificate of Merit. Please see Rules and Score Sheet (Rubric) for the Senior History Book.

Unit, county and district history books must be received by Department Historian Sue Hembrook as soon as possible after the District Spring Conference and no later than May 31, 2022 to be eligible for judging at the Department Convention.

History books received by Department Historian will be displayed at the 2022 Dept. Convention in July. It is the owners' responsibility to claim the books at the end of convention or to arrange for someone to do it for them. No history books will be mailed back to the unit, county or district.

Junior History Books: A Department of Wisconsin Certificate of Participation will be presented to all District and Unit Honorary Junior Historians who submit a history book for judging and win at the district level. Please see Rules and Score Sheet (Rubric) for the Junior History Book.

The winning Junior history books must be received by Department Historian Sue Hembrook as soon as possible after the District Spring Conference; no later than May 31, 2022 to be eligible for judging.

Single Event Historical Narrative for 100th Anniversary: A Department of Wisconsin Certificate of Participation will be presented to all Unit, County, and Districts who submit a report on single event celebrating the 100th Anniversary. This report should include the basics of who, what, when, and where of the event, please note that these events conclude 12-31-2021. The report should also include a short narrative of the impact- including pictures and interviews with attendees is a bonus!

Members Remember History Project: A Certificate of Participation will be presented to all Auxiliary members who submit a video in which a long-time member or charter member shares her memory of a special project or particular highlight of her time as a member.

Year-End Narrative Report: Historians at all levels are encouraged to mail or email a Year-End narrative report to Historian Sue Hembrook by April 15, 2022. Mail or email the report to the address listed on cover page.
