What is this program, and why do we have it?

Public Relations promotes who we are, what we do, and why we matter.

What can you do?

1. Promote a positive image of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Wisconsin by supporting the efforts of Goal 5 of the Centennial Strategic Plan (With the American Legion, build Brand Loyalty) and the use of the variety of public relations materials and resources available online.

Ideas:

Member

- Attend the ALA Academy online. It's free and the series of courses will expand your knowledge of the ALA and help you better serve our mission.
- Give an American Legion Auxiliary magazine gift subscription to your local library, senior center and/or doctor's office. Order or print a subscription order form at alaforveterans.org/Magazine or call (317) 569-4500.
- Sign up for the free ALA e-news email at: <http://americanlegion.informz.net/AmericanLegion/profile.asp>
- Distribute ALA brochures and posters throughout your community at libraries, job fairs, medical facilities and Post homes. Print brochures online from the Member Resources section at ALAforVeterans.org or order them from your Department secretary.
- Wear your officially branded ALA apparel, ALA pins and/or "Honoring Their Service" button. Button order forms are available at ALAforVeterans.org.
- Show and share pictures of you and your Veteran/s. They are your "why" for joining the ALA. Show us who they are! They are special to you; make them special to us, too.
- Be prepared to answer questions about who the Auxiliary is, what we do, and why we matter. A business card template with our mission statement is available – just ask me!

Unit

- Develop a list of local media contacts for your unit to use. Step-by-step instructions are included in the Public Relations Guide and Tips for Volunteer Recruitment toolkit available in the Marketing & Promotional Materials of the Member Resources section at ALAforVeterans.org.
- Create and manage websites and social media pages for your Unit. Detailed information is available under Public Relations Support Tools on ALAforVeterans.org
- Build relationships with your local media and political figures.
- Write a letter to the editor and/or News Release for patriotic holidays and events. Templates can be found in Marketing & Promotional Materials in the Member Resources section at ALAforVeterans.org.
- Familiarize yourself with and utilize the Public Relations Guide and Tips for Volunteer Recruitment toolkit, ALA Branding Guide and other tools available in the Member Resources section at ALAforVeterans.org.

2. Build brand loyalty of the American Legion Auxiliary through the utilization and promotion of websites, social media and other electronic communications.

Ideas:

Member

- Promote Auxiliary events on your personal social media accounts.
- Sign up for the free ALA e-news email at:
<http://americanlegion.informz.net/AmericanLegion/profile.asp>
- Add a link to ALAforVeterans.org in your personal email signature.
- Show and share pictures of you and your Veteran/s on your social media profiles. They are your “why” for joining the ALA. Show us who they are and tell everyone about them!
- Be prepared to answer questions about who the Auxiliary is, what we do, and why we matter when posting about events. Refer back to the mission statement.
- Take the time to share a favorite story about the positive impact you or someone you know has had on our mission. It helps us tell the world who we are, what we do and why we matter!
- Follow us on the Department of Wisconsin Public Relations Facebook page! We will share a lot of good information on here throughout the year and you can post photos and updates there for us to see as well. Search for our Group called “ALA Department of Wisconsin Public Relations”
- Attend the Department “ALA in the Know” workshops. Dates are available on the Department Website.

Unit

- Create and manage websites and social media pages for your Unit. Detailed information is available under Public Relations Support Tools on ALAforVeterans.org
- Send annual newsletters to your Unit members with upcoming events and information they may have missed at the last meeting. Keep it fun and include “Did You Know” informational sections and contact information.
- Follow us on the Department of Wisconsin Public Relations Facebook page! We will share a lot of good information throughout the year and you can post photos and updates from your Unit events for us to see as well.

Public Relations Reporting

Mid-Year Reports (optional)

There are no required Mid-Year reports. However, if you would like to keep me informed of your activity, please send me a report that reflects the program work of your unit and members. Email a short narrative report and pictures by November 16, 2022 to Department Public Relations Chairman Sandra Mack at smack@amfam.com or 1204 Wisconsin Street, Adell WI 53001.

Year-End Reports

Each Unit Public Relations Chairman is required to submit a narrative report by April 15, 2023 to the Department Public Relations Chairman at the address found on the cover page of this Program Plan.

As part of your Year-End Narrative Report, please include the answers to the following questions:

- How has your Units used or developed social media to promote the ALA?
- Has your Unit been mentioned in local media promotion of mission related activities? What type of promotions? (Enclose newspaper articles or links if available).
- Describe any public service announcements (Press Release/radio/TV) that were distributed and what type of response was received? (Enclose samples if available).
- Did your Unit keep an active and updated media contact list? How has this list impacted your working relationships with the local media?
- Describe any social media events sponsored by your Unit that broadly spread the brand of the ALA.
- Describe how members and your Unit participated in branding opportunities by wearing and promoting ALA apparel and logos.
- How many members reported showing off a picture of themselves with their Veteran?
- Has your Unit been following the Department PR Facebook page? Did you post updates and/or send Department any information to be included?

Public Relations Awards

Note: Please be sure each award entry includes a Cover Sheet found at the end of this Program Plan and arrangements for the return of materials in advance if desired.
